BARLOW and GEORGIA BARLOW, husband and wife, did grant and convey the property therein and hereinafter described to BANK OF AMERICA, a corporation of Los Angeles, California, as Trustee, to secure, among other things, the payment of one certain promissory note in favor of CAROLINE T. Water Election To Settle Old Dispute proved abortive, as old water rights apparently make it questionable whether the Dominguez company does not have the rancho territory.

Save Embarrassment. Torrance is within the original rancho territory from which the water is pumped, but "it has long been a subject of dispute in fixing the limits of the watershed by which rights to the underground supply may be fixed," the story continues. "With rapidly lowering water levels all over the San Gabriel Valley drainage area, a concerted effort is being made to prohibit in so far as locally possible the pumping of water to any points outside the watershed's limits."

Any legal controversy would undoubtedly be felt by Torrance water consumers. By eliminating such disputes in an orderly election, to determine once and for all whether or not Torrance is to have an ample supply of unlimited water at a reasonable rate, the city could save itself much embarrassment, it is believed here by responsible citizens.

EIGHT YEARS AGO IN TORRANCE

As Told by the Files of This Paper

Torrance Masons held their third annual picnic at Eagle Rock park.

Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Post and children were "outing" at Glen Ranch.

Slow delivery of materials were holding up construction of the new library building on El Prado.

DeKalb Spurlin completed building his 46th home in Torrance, selling the last one to John A. Decker of Monrovia.

Sam Rappaport and Charles Elman formed a partnership to conduct a furniture store business at 1214 El Prado avenue.

Six special police badges were purchased by the city to equip extra officers during the course of the Torrance fair.

"Little" Albert Andre celebrated his seventh birthday with a party at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jules Andre.

The two new houses of Mrs. Vonderahe and her sons, which were under construction on South Andros avenue were about completed.

Virginia Watson was judged winner of the Fiesta and Fair Queen contest with Ilean Straub, second; Mary Roberts, third, and Dot Coker, fourth.

All dogs were quarantined as result of an epidemic of rabies in Torrance. "It is necessary that all animals be muzzled, penned up or put on leash," the city fathers declared.

R. R. Smith, then superintendent of the oil tool department of the Union Tool Company here was in Arizona supervising the installation of a new plant for his company.

Celebrating the growth of Torrance, plans for a "monster industrial fair with three big tents," August 15 to 19, were progressing rapidly. "This thriving city of over 3000 inhabitants will be put on the map," declared H. D. Pottenger, secretary of the Chamber of Commerce.

"The Need Was Never Greater!" Managership Is Given To Collins

Salvation Army Maintenance Campaign Is Reported To Be Lagging Here; Families in Distress

"The need was never greater!" This is the slogan of the local campaign to raise $2000 for Salvation Army maintenance work in Torrance. At the report luncheon held at the Chamber of Commerce yesterday noon this slogan was emphasized and pleas were made more urgent for public support of the work. To date the sum of $1106.25 has been raised, it was reported. The campaign among the employees of the United Concrete Pipe Company has been deferred until September when a larger number of men are expected to be at work. Sam Levy general chairman of the drive, presided at the meeting yesterday. There were 12 workers present.

Campaign Lagging

The campaign is lagging here, according to Mrs. M. Loretta McBeth, civilian representative of the Army. She made an urgent plea that those who are among the poor should deposit the money with the officials of the First National Bank, who are qualfied to accept any funds for the Army. Likewise, payments can be made at the bank on any pledges. Lieut. and Mrs. Frank Kester, in charge of local Salvation Army activities, declared that because of the unemployment situation many families in this district are in dire want. They stated that the local corps is cooperating with the Torrance Women's Relief Association to eliminate any duplications of assistance and in the endeavor to relieve the pitiful plight of families here.

PUBLIC BID TO DANCE

Another public dance, sponsored by the Loyal Order of Moose, will be held Thursday evening, August 7 at the Recreation hall on Cason street. Music will be provided by the L.O.O.M. orchestra. It is announced that the lodge will appreciate any suggestions as to what is wanted in the form of entertainment.

Succeeds Don Baxter As Head of Concer

Announcement was made today by C. A. Turney, president of the Wynn Tire and Rubber Company, of the appointment of Douglas Collins, well known resident of Torrance, as manager of the Wynn Tire and Rubber store here to succeed Don A. Baxter, who died Saturday. Everett T. Wendell, formerly with the Firestone Tire and Rubber Company of Akron, Ohio, and Los Angeles, will be engaged with Collins here.

"In the death of Don Baxter, manager of the local headquarters of the Wynn Company, Torrance loses one of its leading business men and an active worker," Mr. Turney said in tribute today. The Wynn Company is now building a large new plant at the corner of Marcellina and Cravens avenues which is expected to be formally opened early in September.
